"The test of our progress is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much; it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little."

~Eleanor Roosevelt

Carol Cohen Author & historian of Eleanor Roosevelt

Eleanor Roosevelt the longest serving first lady of the United States

Join author and historian Carol Cohen for a look into the life of Eleanor Roosevelt. During this presentation, meet Eleanor Roosevelt at her home in Hyde Park, New York in December 1948. Eleanor has just returned from the United Nations where they have ratified the International Declaration of Human Rights. Learn about her role as a human rights activist and inspect many primary sources that were very much a part of Eleanor Roosevelt's personal and professional life. The presentation which is part portrayal and part power point is both interesting and interactive.

A Garden Walk with Eleanor Roosevelt

It is the summer of 1949; Eleanor Roosevelt is hosting a garden picnic at her home in Hyde Park where she is recognizing contributions to the Victory Garden effort during World War.

The interactive program includes both first person portrayal and lecture. Following an "up close visit" with Eleanor, participants will learn about Victory Gardens past, present and future via an informative, visually enhanced power point lecture.
