FANTASTICAL FOLKTALES of Flowers

A Truly, Delightful Weave of Storytelling, Music and Song for Adults

In this entertaining theatrical performance, Oracle award-winning storyteller Diane Edgecomb celebrates flowers and the dramatic and charming stories that have been told about them through the ages. This show is accompanied by song and the music of Celtic harp played by Margot Chamberlain. "You brought my garden alive to me in the most unusual and delightful way. I will never see a rose in the same way again!"— Audience Member
